Additional Information:

Coláiste Éinde, a voluntary secondary school known for educational excellence and a wide range of extra-curricular activities, invites applications for a teaching position for the upcoming academic year. Our Catholic ethos guides all aspects of school life, focusing on care, cooperation, and students' educational, social, moral, and physical growth. We embrace innovative teaching methods to meet student needs. We prioritise excellence in teaching, inclusion, and professional development for staff.

The position requires Teaching Council registration, Garda Vetting, medical fitness, and a commitment to the school ethos. Terms and conditions align with Department of Education regulations. Shortlisting applies, and canvassing will disqualify candidates. Late applications will not be considered.

Interviews will occur after the closing date. The contract is contingent on redeployment panel clearance and the start of the academic year 25/26. Applications (including a letter, CV, and references) must be sent by email to applications@ColaisteEinde.ie
